

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion
to the Sick and Homebound

Bringing the Eucharist to those in need.

“For I was hungry and you
gave me something to eat,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink...
I was sick, and you looked after me.”

- Matthew 25:31-40

What do we do?

Our Homebound Ministry brings the Eucharist to Parish members and other Catholics who are unable to attend Mass in person. These are brief but rewarding visits to bring both the healing presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, as well as the prayers and compassion of our parish family into the homes of those in need.

What kind of commitment can I expect?

“The Lord loves a cheerful giver...”
Whatever time you can give is of value. This is a flexible ministry with flexible hours. Usually, it involves a commitment of no more than an hour or two after Mass on a rotating basis, depending on availability. When going into private homes, you will always be paired with another Extraordinary Minister

What our Homebound Parishioners have to say...

“In our late 80’s, we are housebound and not able to attend regular Sunday services.

We both sincerely appreciate having Holy Communion and prayer provided by pastoral care volunteers in our home, from our Parish at Sacred Heart. “

Don and Eileen

“The Eucharist is the bread of life. Without it, we cannot live.”

- Saint Catherine of Siena

Experience the great joy of bringing the Body, Blood, Soul
and Divinity of Our Lord to those in need within our Parish.

“Christ held Himself in His hands
when He gave His Body to His disciples, saying:”

‘This is My Body.’

- St. Augustine
